Thanksgiving History

By: Alex Gurling

In September 1620, a small ship called the Mayflower left Plymouth, England, carrying 102 passengers—In assortment of religious separatists seeking a new home where they could freely practice their faith and other individuals lured by the promise of prosperity and land ownership in the New World. After a treacherous and uncomfortable crossing that lasted 66 days, they dropped anchor near the tip of Cape Cod, for north of their intended destination at the mouth of the Hudson River. One month later, the Mayflower crossed Massachusetts Bay, where the Pilgrims, as they are now commonly known, began the work of establishing a village at Plymouth.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Thanksgiving is a time to give thanks and to say thank you to others when they are kind to you.

Habit of the Month

By: Will Chuba

World peace and harmony. Doesn't that sound like a beautiful thing? Everyone's dancing, the birds are singing, the sun is shining, and flowers are smiling. It sounds like an utopia! That's what the 7 Habits are here for, to get one step closer to happiness.

This month, the central habit is Habit 3, Put First Things First. This is a very important one in everyone's lifetime, because it means to work, then play.

Hey, hey, I hear you groaning, render. I know how badly you want to go play video games and watch TV instead of doing your math homework. But not setting up this habit early in your life could lead to very disastrous results.

For example, let's think of something that could be something beautiful but turned into something ugly if you didn't follow this habit....

You get off the bus, your backpack loaded.. You need to finish your science homework that's due the next day, your writing homework due the next Monday, and finally, your book report that's due when the month is over. When you get home, you think about working on it, but decide it can wait until inter 'cause you need to go play with some of your buddies.

Then, at nine o'clock, your parents ask you, "Have you done your homework?"

Your eyes bulge. You completely forgot about your science work! But it's too late. You plan to wake up early and go to bed.

Sadly, you don't wake up early enough, and go to science class empty-handed. Your teacher gives you the "I'm not mad, just disappointed" looks, and you get a lecture for not finishing it. You feel ashamed as you limp back to your seat. Why didn't you leave the "hanging out with friends" part until inter? You decide to be more responsible, hoping that this scene never happens again.

And here's the weird thing - you could've stopped the episode from happening if you'd put first things first! Instead of playing with friends, you should leave the fun stuff to later. It's a good thing to do your work - or anything - first thing when you get home - then you can hang with some pals.

A Must Read Book

By: Will Chuba

Let's face it. Most of you are spending lots of time looking for books, but can't find a single one that interests you. Well, well, my lucky readers, I'm here to help. I will give a book, a review, a main idea, and a recommendation for a demographic match. Without further adieu, let's move to our books!

Story Thieves by James Riley

Owen is an average kid. He feels as if there's nothing special in his life. He wakes up, goes to school, learns stuff, goes back home, rinse and repeat. However, his life is forever altered when he sees a girl, Bethenny, in his class jumping into a book. Following her, he and fantasy book character Kiel Gamefoot switch places! Can Owen, Bethenny, and Kiel work together to correct this mix-up... while I'll have to follow each other's plot? Filled with brilliant jokes, heart-stopping suspense, and lovable characters, I advise you to read Story Thieves by James Riley.

Green Wilma Frog in Space by Tedd Arnold

cronk Wowzie! When a alien from deep in outer space switches places with your everyday frog that really wants to catch that gosh-darned fly! In a wmp-speed adventure with a bunch of wacky humor, be sure to read Green Wilma Frog In Space by Tedd Arnold!

SPECIAL AREA STAFF SPOTLIGHT

By: Kate Hagan

This month's staff spotlight is Mrs. Hood. Her favorite sports star is Russell Wilson. She commented that he was a good person as well as a great athlete.

Another question she answered was, who inspired you as a child and why? Mrs. Hood's older brothers inspired her by pushing her as hard as she could go. They always challenged her to do better.

She said that when she was in college, she played three sports! When she was a kid, she took on volleyball, basketball, soccer, and swimming.

A fun fact about Mrs. Hood is that she got bitten by a copperhead snake a few years ago.

Some of her favorite games in PE are Acid River Crossing, Battleship, Triple Trouble, and the Pacer Run.

There's no denying that Mrs. Hood is an amazing gym teacher and coach!

Hang in for the December Staff Spotlight!

My name is Lauren McCann and I am in Mr. Ritter's 6th grade class. Our school has had a lot of events lately including the Husky Hustle, Culver's Night, and our PTA picnic. Our school has done a great job on raising money for Highland Park! I interviewed our school PTA and found out some amazing things. At our Husky Hustle we had just over 300 people attend this event. We raised a little over 6,000 dollars! And for Culver's Night we raised a little over 800 dollars in only 3 hours! Great job Huskies!
