Cougar Newsletter

January 31—February 7

LSE Families,

We are in serious need of everyone's help! Please search your cars, your children's backpacks, under the beds, under the couches - anywhere you can think of - because we are missing over 15 pages front and back of library books - this amounts to over $1000 of books! We are so glad our students are checking out books and have a love of reading but we need to get them checked back in to our library! Please check everywhere so that all students can enjoy these books! We will be sending out notices to families that have books checked out to them so we can be specific in finding our missing library collection! We appreciate all of you helping us find our beloved books!

Educationally,

Ms. Sample

Tips for Parents:

Remember that our late bell rings at 8:20am in the morning. It is SO important for them to be ON TIME and ready for the day. Students who are not attending an after school activity need to be picked up by 3:30pm.
