SEASON 1

The vicious cycle of heroin addiction – and the collateral damage it inflicts on so many – is one of the most profound epidemics we face in this country. The Trade is a powerful and visceral odyssey from the power fields of cartel-controlled Mexico to the battle to save lives in heartland America.

"The Trade" - A Discussion of the Showtime Documentary

About the Program

We know that this winter has been horrific, but does it compare to the drug trade? Join us as we view the Showtime Documentary series "The Trade" and have an open discussion about each of the films as they relate to present day throughout the State of Missouri and in the nation.

We invite all members of our community to engage in conversation about the current impact of drug use, drug trafficking, treatment, and other related issues from multiple perspectives.

Schedule

9:00 am - Episode 1: Explore America's heroin crisis from the trafficking in Mexico, the dealers in Ohio, and the addicts in Atlanta.

10:00 am - Episode 2: Violence escalates, law enforcement deal with overdoses, and treatment facilities deal with addiction.

11:00 am - Episode 3: Mexican to United States drug trade and tracking the local heroin supply and an addict continues using prior to a court date.

12:00 am - 1:00 pm - Lunch & Roundtable Discussion

1:00 pm - Episode 4: Mexican law enforcement address drug trafficking, law enforcement and parents track down dealers and users.

2:00 pm - Episode 5: Law enforcement focus on helping addicts into recovery while targeting heroin laced with Fentanyl. A trafficker finds himself trapped in the trade and an addict faces long-term treatment.

3:00 pm - 4:00 pm Round table discussions.
