

Thanksgiving Facts

By Riley Buhman

Did you know when the pilgrims had their first Thanksgiving with the Native Americans they didn't use silverware at all, and Thanksgiving didn't become a national holiday until 200 hundred years later!

Every year there is a special...Pardon Turkey! They spare this turkey from being eaten on Thanksgiving. The first pardon turkey ceremony started with President Truman in 1947. President Obama picked a 45-pound turkey named Courage. They flew Courage to Disneyland and was in the Thanksgiving parade. Wild Turkeys can run up to 20 miles per hour, do you think you can beat one in a race? Domesticated turkeys that are bred can't run quite as fast because they are heavier. (Heavier to be eaten on Thanksgiving!)

The NFL started having games on Thanksgiving, called the Thanksgiving Classic Games in 1920 and

Introducing....

Mrs. Sapp

By: Sophie Booth

Mrs. Sapp is one of our first grade teachers. It's her first year at HPE.

What is your favorite color?

Burgundy and purple

What is something nobody knows about you? I got married at age 19

If you could have a super power, what would it be? The ability to speak and understand all languages. Also, flying would be pretty awesome :)

Where would you like to go on vacation someday? Honestly, anywhere quiet and relaxing. Preferably warm. I would also love to revisit Livingstone back home in Zambia and see the amazing Victoria Falls.

What is your favorite subject to teach and why? Math. I always loved and enjoyed it in school. I would love to share the same love with my kids so they can enjoy it and have a positive view about math.

What is the funniest joke you've ever heard? I do not know may jokes unfortunately; but, I can Pinterest one :) like, "What do you call an alligator in a vest?.....an investigator!" Hope it makes at least one person smile :)

Must Read Books

By Samuel Schmidt

Jinx, by Sage Blackwood, in my opinion, is a very adventurous book, filled with a tale of a young boy whose taken in by a wizard, and starts to live in a world of magic. Jinx is a chapter book, and is a moderately difficult book, with my suggestion of a 4th-6th grade reading level. This book is also in a trilogy, starting with Jinx, then Jinx's Fire, and finally Jinx's Magic.

Each Kindness is a very heartfelt picture book, about a girl who treats the new kid at school badly. This is a easy book, with my recommendation of 1st-6th graders.

GIRLS ON THE RUN

By: Brooke Winkle

Girls On The Run is an HPE club for girls only that requires running and exercises. They train for a 5k, which is on November 10th. In 3rd grade, you may join GOTR and it will continue until you are in 6th grade. Some people in your class might be on GOTR so you can ask about anything if you have any questions. Girls On The Run participants talk about friendships and how to respect your body with food, water, exercise, and love.

I have two siblings. They are girls and one goes to this school. She is in Ms. Vaccaro's second grade class.

What are your 3 favorite movies? Answer: The Greatest Showman, The Nut Job, and Princess and the Frog.
