

FOR YOUR ATTENTION

HOLIDAY PARTIES

- School PTAs are responsible for the organization of Holiday Parties.
- Room parents will request a specific number of volunteers on a first come basis.
- Only volunteers will be allowed in the classroom during the party.
- Infants, preschool, middle school, high school students and non-volunteers are not allowed in classrooms during these celebration times.
- PTA provides the food/snacks for the parties.
- Student valentines must be non-edible.

BIRTHDAY RECOGNITIONS

- Recognition of student birthdays is designed uniquely by each teacher. Parents/guardians should contact the classroom teacher in advance of the child's birthday regarding these specific details.
- Birthday recognitions are intended to be a celebration of the child in meaningful ways absent of food. Outside food will not be accepted for class distribution as part of the birthday recognition.
- Birthday recognitions are designed to be an integrated part of the school day versus a time that interrupts the classroom routine or instructional time.
- Birthday recognitions are designed so as not to impact the dietary decisions or needs of other students.
- Invitations for out of school parties may not be brought to school for distribution.
- Deliveries for students will not be accepted at school. (Such as floral arrangements, balloon bouquets, etc.)
